

Training strategy areas

1) Overview of training

The plan and approach for understanding training requirements and the principles you should consider.

2) Training needs explained

An overview of the training needs identified for your business.

3) Materials

A description of the materials you expect to use during training.

4) High level training plan and curriculum

The plan, curriculum and estimated training hours for your employees.

5) Logistics

Who is required and when to plan, create and deliver training.